

<!-- ! marquee tag -->

The `<marquee>` tag is used to create scrolling text or other elements in a webpage.

Syntax

```
<marquee behavior="" direction="">Content</marquee>
```

Attributes of the `<marquee>` Tag

- direction: Specifies the direction in which the content should scroll.
 - Values:
 - left (default) → Scrolls content from right to left.
 - right → Scrolls content from left to right.
 - up → Scrolls content from bottom to top.
 - down → Scrolls content from top to bottom.
- behavior: Specifies the scrolling behavior of the content.
 - Values:
 - scroll (default) → Content scrolls continuously.
 - slide → Content slides in, then stops.
 - alternate → Content alternates back and forth (bounces).
- scrollamount: Specifies the speed of the scrolling content.
- loop: Specifies how many times the content should scroll.
- height: Specifies the height of the marquee container.
- width: Specifies the width of the marquee container.